

April – June 2006

IBA Group Launches New Website

IBA Group released a newly developed corporate website (www.iba-it-group.com) that provides information about IBA Group, including its mission, vision, development centers and offices, services and products, competitive advantages, and experience in IT outsourcing. Other focus areas are community relations, as well as public education and employee support.

IBA Sponsors IT Contest and Student Summer School

The Ministry of Education of Belarus thanked IBA Minsk for sponsoring the national contest in informatics for students of colleges, vocational schools, and special secondary educational institutions. In addition, IBA provides financial support to the International Summer School “Modern Information Technologies” for university students and postgraduates. IBA has been sponsoring the summer school since 2002.

Danish IT Weekly Publishes Article about IBA Group

Karim Pedersen, a journalist of Com’On, the second largest IT edition in Denmark, visited IBA Minsk. Based on his impressions of the visit, an article entitled “IT-gigant in Hviderusland” (IT Giant in Belarus) came out in Com’On # 21 of June 8, 2006.

IBA Group Participates in INTEROP Moscow 2006

From June 21 to June 23, IBA participated in INTEROP 2006 that was held in Moscow, Russia. The event brought together IT experts from all over the world. Guests and exhibitors had a chance to attend speeches by Steve Wosniak, Co-founder of Apple Computer; Lori Woehler, Director of Microsoft Security Technology Unit; Marten Mickos, MySQLAB CEO; Jeff Smith, Strategy Vice President of IBM Software Group; and Kevin Mitnick, Founder of Mitnick Security Consulting LLC. IBA delivered two presentations on ERP systems and showcased IT solutions on electronic document management, business process automation, remote education, and banking technologies